Treasurer report-Financials (see attachment)

Executive Director Report- "There's a place for every pet!"

Volunteer(s) of the year:

Thrift Store Volunteer of the year: Bonnie Kelley

Vet Clinic Volunteer of the Year-Sandra Rankin

Shelter Volunteer of the year-Tim McGinnis

Community Events Volunteers of the year: Meghan Lewis and Frank Elswick

Valerie Swensrud was honored for her continued work with the clinic, thrift store, estate sale events, and outreach programs.

Our new clinic won the "Rookie of the Year" from the Siuslaw Chamber.

The clinic is set up to house Vet interns and volunteer medical teams. OCHS is offering intern programs for 4th year veterinary students from OSU to continue their education for rescue and clinic work.

Fences for Fido has expanded to include the surrounding area.

School visits continue with volunteers taking animals to schools to help kids understand about pets and rescue.

TNR programs are going strong throughout the community.

"A Plan For My Pets" was discussed. It leaves a plan for owners' end of life and how to plan for their pets' future.

See 2025 Annual Report for statistics about Intakes, Outcomes, Financial Details, and more information about our fabulous volunteers and programs.

Meeting adjourned 12:10pm

Respectfully Submitted,

Anthony Hamilton
